Lighthouse Golf Course: future in the rough?

■ 'Due diligence' by would- be buyer of Lighthouse development apparently includes discussion of removing or downsizing West Sacramento's only golf course

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

"Lighthouse" – West Sacramento's most long-awaited residential development – may soon change hands, and that could cloud the future of its golf course.

"There's a group that wants to purchase Lighthouse or go into a joint venture with (the present owners)," said city council member Bill Kristoff when asked to comment yesterday.

That potential buyer is The Grupe Company (pronounced "groupie"), based in Stockton. Representatives from The Grupe Company and from Lighthouse did not immediately respond to requests for comment from the News-Ledger.

"They are a major, major player in the housing market in California," Kristoff said of The Grupe Company. "They do nothing but first-class stuff."

The company's web site lists a handful of resort communities – including at least one golf community – on its resume. But it is negotiating with city officials to see if it is possible to alter a development agreement and downsize or eliminate the existing golf course at Lighthouse. The planned community is on West Sacramento's northeastern riverfront, above the Tower Bridge, and boasts the city's only golf course.

City planning director Stephen Patek and Mayor Christopher Cabaldon said this week they had no comment on any such negotiations.

Kristoff said the issue is a financial one for the potential buyer, who may want to build additional houses. Another source close to the city, but who asked not to be named, said that narrow fairways at the course are beingblamed for creating a liability problem involving golf balls and nearby house lots.

"They have a number of issues (regarding the purchase of Lighthouse), and one of those issues seems to be the golf course itself," said Kristoff. "The golf course is something we don't want to lose. There are perhaps some things we could do, like take it from 18 holes to a nice nine. I haven't had the opportunity to talk to these people very much at this point."

About a dozen lots at Lighthouse have been sold to a developer who is now building homes on some of them. But the majority of the development remains under the ownership of Hazama USA, a Japanese-held company.

The development was envisioned and planned as a high-end marina and golf course community on the riverfront, adjacent to older West Sacramento neighborhoods, since even before West Sacramento incorporated in 1987. But the plans have largely languished due to financial obstacles.

In recent years, Lighthouse deeded 43 acres of riverfront land to the city to relieve itself of a city development agreement obligating Lighthouse to build a marina. Those acres now form the property being considered as the site for the California governor's mansion and adjacent state park.

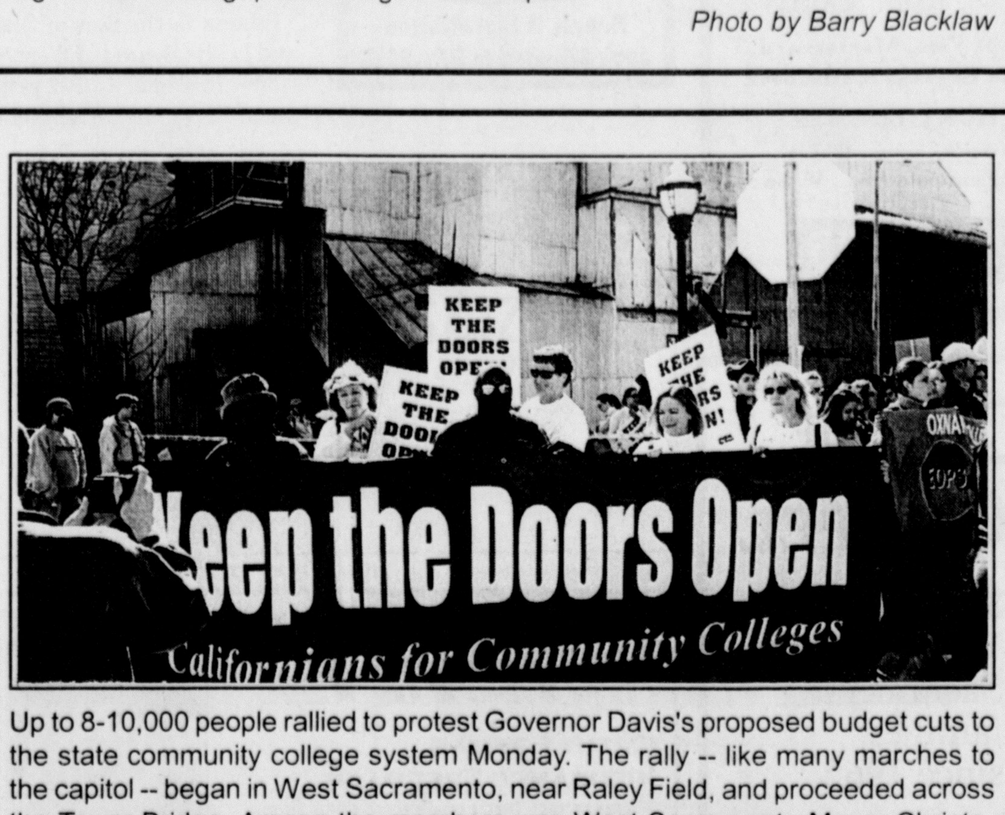

Wearing o' the green

Members of the teachers union for the Washington Unified School District picketed district headquarters Friday, wearing the light green shirts that signify union solidarity. The teachers were asking that district officials grant them a salary increase; one teacher's sign refers to a COLA (cost of living increase), saying "No COLA/No deal; 3.87% for all."

District officials maintain that state budget cuts leave little room for a pay raise, and have issued layoff warnings. The two sides remain at impasse and are heading for "fact finding" proceedings in the dispute.

Up to 8-10,000 people rallied to protest Governor Davis's proposed budget cuts to the state community college system Monday. The rally -- like many marches to the capitol -- began in West Sacramento, near Raley Field, and proceeded across the Tower Bridge. Among the marchers was West Sacramento Mayor Christopher Cabaldon, vice chancellor of the state's community college system.

Ammonia tank cars derail

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

A pair of railroad cars carrying a toxic ammonia compound derailed Monday afternoon in West Sacramento. But the cars were not seriously damaged and none of the ammonia escaped, reports Bill Summers, hazardous materials manager for the West Sacramento Fire Department. The accident occurred at about 4 p.m. on the Union Pacific line just south of Industrial Blvd. and roughly a half mile west of Harbor Blvd.

"There was no puncture and no leak," said Summers. "The way these particular rail cars were designed, all the fittings are on top of the car, so even if they fall over, it is unlikely to have a leak. From what I saw, I don't think there was any chance of them rolling over, but even if they did, they're designed pretty tough."

The rail cars were taking the ammonia product from the Agrium facility (formerly owned by Unocal) near West Sacramento's western city limit when the cars left the tracks on a turn and one tanker came loose of its wheeled undercarriage. Several hours of work by heavy equipment, including mobile cranes, helped get the two cars "back on track." Some damage was found in the rail line.

One of the two rail cars was full of the ammonia cargo – which becomes a deadly gas if released – and the other was three-quarters full, said Summers.

Should the public be worried about a railway-linked spill of the toxic, heavier-than-air ammonia compound produced at Agrium?

"Anytime you have a rail car carrying that kind of gas or liquid, they do present a hazard," said Summers. "Most often, at the kind of speeds the train would be going through that area, this is about the kind of accident you're likely to have."

Suspected bank robber tracked after Wells Fargo 'note' heist

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

A bank robber may have received a little something extra along with money stolen from the Wells Fargo bank inside Raley's Supermarket in West Sacramento last Thursday: a tracking device that helped lead to a suspect's capture shortly afterwards.

At about 12:44 p.m. Thursday, West Sacramento police officers responded to a report of a robbery at the West Capitol Ave. bank branch. A male suspect had handed a teller a note demanding money, and had indicated he had a gun, said police records.

The suspect was given an undisclosed amount of cash along with a hidden tracking device. He fled.

"Officers from the Sacramento Police Department located a possible suspect in the area of 37th Street and J Street in Sacramento," reports Officer Amy Lawrence of West Sacramento's police department. "The suspect was positively identified by witnesses and taken into custody without incident."

She identified the suspect as 40-year old Ralph Mungaray of Gilroy.

'Takeover' robbery at Radio Shack

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

West Sacramento's Radio Shack store on Harbor Blvd. was victimized by a "takeover" robbery Friday. No one was injured.

"Five suspects – three males and two females – tied up the clerk and robbed the store," said Officer Amy Lawrence of the West Sacramento Police Department. "There was no injury to the clerk. One suspect was armed with a handgun."

Only one clerk was in the store at the time.

Detailed descriptions of the suspects were not available. The suspects may have fled in a dark sedan.

'Tragic' car accident:

Toddler dies

By Steve Marschke
News-Ledger Editor

A two year old girl died of her injuries after being run over by a van in a Maple Street apartment parking lot on Thursday.

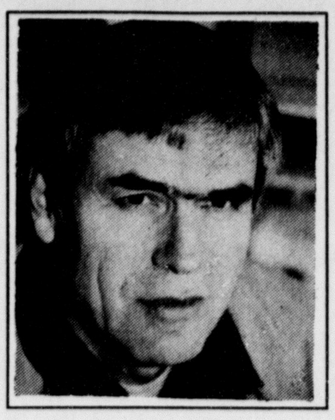

Alexis Pina-Howard was playing in the lot with family members nearby, said Officer Amy Lawrence of the West Sacramento Police Department, when she was critically injured as the van backed up. She was taken to UC Davis Medical Center, where she died of her injuries.

The investigation continues, but the driver has not been charged with any crime.

"It's just a tragic, tragic accident," said Lawrence.

What men need to know; plus quirks in English

My Back Pages

By Daryl Fisher

I recently read an interesting little article by a lady named Lynn Harris entitled "10 things women want men to know." She explained that men and women are really not all that different, and that they both want more or less the same things, i.e., some affection, some solitude, some partnership, and some independence.

"The problem," explained Ms. Harris, "is that once men and women start saying they don't understand each other, we're likely to give up trying, and that gets us nowhere."

Anyway, among the ten things Ms. Harris believes women want men to know are: Don't say I'll call you if you don't plan to; Even if you're not a world champion plan-maker, making an effort is appreciated; You shouldn't be offended if we don't jump into new things with both feet; When we're mad at you, don't try to hug and kiss us -- we want to punch you; Engaging in lively debate doesn't mean we're trying to change your mind; And we want to know enough about your ex to know that she's not a threat.

After I finished reading the article, it suddenly occurred to me that maybe Ms. Harris missed a half-dozen or so minor little things which I'm pretty sure most women also want men to know, like the following:

1. A women wants her man to know that he needs to get off his butt and get a really good job so someday (and the sooner the better) he can buy her a house that has giant walk-in closets for all her clothes and shoes everywhere.

2. She wants him to be able to fix things and not be afraid of spiders.

3. She wants him to smell better than he usually does, make a serious effort at not getting a beer belly, and not have hair growing out of his nose and ears.

4. She wants him to live long enough to learn that cooking, cleaning, grocery shopping and raising children isn't just "woman's work".

5. She wants him to understand that a vasectomy is a much easier medical procedure than tubal ligation.

6. And probably most important of all, she wants him to understand that sex is more often than not something she likes to do after she's had a good time, not something she likes to do for a good time.

West Sacramentan Verna Ellis, a longtime subscriber to the News-Ledger, recently mailed me something she had run across entitled "So, you thought you were tough enough to try and learn English?" The original author is apparently unknown, although he or she is believed to have been a linguist, and I hope you'll find the following as cute as I did:

Let's face it -- English is a crazy language. There is no egg in eggplant, no ham in hamburger, no pine or apple in pineapple. Quicksand actually works slowly, boxing rings are square, and a guinea pig is neither from Guinea nor is it a pig. And how can it be that our noses run and our feet smell; that a wise man and a wise guy our opposites; and that a slim chance and a fat chance mean the same thing? Anyway, if you ever thought it should be relatively easy for people from other lands to learn English, you might want to take a quick glance at the following 20 sentences:

1. The bandage was wound around the wound.
2. The farm was used to produce produce.
3. The dump was so full that it had to refuse more refuse.
4. We must polish the Polish furniture.
5. He could lead if he would get the lead out.
6. The soldier decided to desert in the desert.
7. Since there is no time like the present, he though it was time to present the present.
8. A bass was painted on the head of the bass drum.
9. When shot at, the dove dove into the bushes.
10. I did not object to the object.
11. The invalid had invalid insurance.
12. There was a row among the oarsmen about how to row.
13. You have to get close to a door to close it.
14. The buck does funny things when the does are present.
15. A seamstress and a sewer fell down into a sewer.
16. To help with planting, the farmer taught his sow to sow.
17. Upon seeing the tear in the painting I shed a tear.
18. After a number of objections my jaw got number.
19. I had to subject the subject to a series of tests.
20. How can I intimate this to my most intimate friend?

David Trussell

MARY ASKS:
"I now know how important credit scores are, and how they directly affect my home buying ability, but how are credit scores derived?"
DAVID TRUSSELL RESPONDS:

First, there are three bureaus that are used in almost every credit inquiry we make: Beacon (Equifax), Emperica (Trans Union) and Fair Isaac (Experian). Most industries use the acronym of FICO, which basically refers to all three bureaus' scores.

Your scores are derived through models. Your model is compared to persons with similar credit across the country.

There are, however, some basics the model looks at first:

1. Each bureau looks at all revolving (credit card), installment (cars, boats, furniture, etc.), mortgage debt & inquiries first. What they are looking for is potential risk. High balances on accounts, late payments, recent new accounts, inquiries, collections, etc.

2. Having many accounts open is not necessarily bad; but what is bad is having the balances of those accounts close to or at the credit limit.

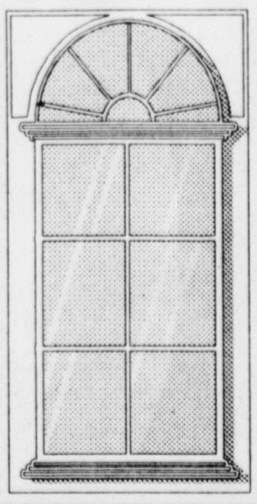

3. Current activity on old accounts. Yes, paying off collections is very wise; however, they can disrupt the activity model on your credit. So pay off collections when you know you have them.

Truly explaining how credit scores are deived would require having to go to one of my workshops. But in the meantime, to keep your credit scores on the rise, here are some basics to live by:

- Keep revolving debt balance at 33% of the limit.
- Keep your inquiries at a minimum. Get your credit scores & remember them. When applying for credit, tell the salesperson your scores before they run your credit again. A good rep should be able to decipher your loan qualifications based on your scores.
- Simply put, pay your bills on time; keep balances low on credit cards, and don't buy something new every six months.

SPORTS INSIDER: Shaq & Kobe back

By Richard Novoa

Kings Korner

The Dallas Mavericks (50-16) came into Sacramento on Sunday afternoon gunning for the Sacramento (46-21) and left town after a big shootout with the Kings with a stunning 129-123 overtime victory. The Mavs had lost seven of there past eight meeting with the Kings dating back to last years playoffs. It's playoff season already!

The Mavs became the first team to reach 50 wins for the season. Dallas is now feeling the heat from San Antonio (47-18) for the Midwest Division lead and the home-court advantage throughout the playoffs. The Kings have 15 regular season games remaining to reach the 50-win plateau and to keep Portland (42-24) from the division crown. The Lakers (37-28) and Jazz (37-29) are currently in the sixth and seventh spot for the playoffs and only five games behind Portland.

The Kings will now have to regroup and not look past the Golden State Warriors on Tuesday night (7 p.m.- News10) because "Big Daddy" and the Lakers (46-26) are coming to town on Thursday (7 p.m.- TNT) night. The Shaq and Kobe show will arrive again in Sacramento with another controversy.

This time Shaq is trashing Mike Bibby for his selection to the U.S. Olympic team! Shaq thinks the Olympic committee should have picked any body else but Bibby to play the point guard. Last time the two teams met it was the issue around Doug Christie, now Shaq needs to motivate himself with another soap opera story.

Big Daddy scored 42 points on Monday against the Clippers and only needs 11 points to reach 20,000 points in his career. The Lakers will have two days off before their encounter with Sacramento on Thursday. Look out Kings here comes "Big Daddy"and the Lakers!

NCAA Basketball

March madness starts on Thursday with the 2003 NCAA Men's and Women's Basketball Tournament. The 64 teams begin a three-week journey to the final four in New Orleans. The women's final four is in Atlanta, Ga. The top seeds in the men's division are Kentucky (29-3), Arizona (25-3), Oklahoma (24-6) and Texas (22-6). I will share with you my NCAA picks after the field gets narrowed down to the Sweet 16.

RCHS tennis team alone in first place

From River City High School

Coming into last week's Capital Valley Conference (CVC) tennis action, the River City High School tennis team was tied with Vanden and Dixon at the top of the standings. All three squads had opened the 2003 league campaign with a pair of wins and the CVC schedule had the Raiders traveling to play both last week. A 6-3 win over the Vikings was followed two days later by an 8-1 pasting of the Rams and the Raiders now find themselves alone at the top with a 4 win, no loss conference mark.

The Vanden match saw the visitors take three of four singles contests as RC's Nikki Hansen, Irina Istomin and Sen Saetern all won their matches. The Raiders also got victories in three doubles matches from the teams of Nai Saelee and Mai Ker Yang, Savuth Touch and Joe Perez, and Heather Yip and Kyle Fisher.

In Thursday's action in Dixon, River City was led by Saetern's 6-0,6-0 "double bagel" in the #2 boys singles match. Bhaves Patel and Istomin also took home singles wins. The visiting Raiders then earned close victories in both boys doubles matches and comfortable wins in the girls and mixed doubles. Cheng Saetern and Aseng Saechao came through in a tiebreak at the #1 boys doubles and teammates Savuth Touch and Shawn Prasad edged out a 10-8 win at #2 boys. The girls doubles matches were not nearly as close as Saelee and Mai Ker scored victories, as did Krystle Parkison and Leslie Yang. In mixed, Yip and Fisher also won.

"We have put ourselves in the best position possible early on," said Raider Head Coach David Brooks. "Everybody else in the CVC now has to chase us and Vanden and Dixon have to come here the second time around. There's still a long way to go, but a lot of people figured that after losing 11 of 14 starters off last year's team to graduation, 2003 would be the year they'd beat us. So far, that hasn't happened."

The next three teams to take their first shot at the Raiders in the CVC will be Center and Foothill on the road and Sacramento County Day next Monday at River City at 3:30 p.m.

The Raider boys team swam to a 24 to 24 ties with Highlands. Shaun Tapia placed first in the 100 yard breaststroke and second in the 50 yard freestyle. Dan Hill finished second in the 100 yard breaststroke and 100 yard freestyle. Daniel Rumsey placed third in the 50 yard and 100 yard freestyle.

Art show at W. Sac. library —

By Betty Fairbairn Sokolich

The library exhibit for the months of March and April presents five artists who use photography as their chosen means of personal expression. Each artist uses subjects that are of great interest to them so the exhibit includes portraits, landscapes, abstractions, and patterns of nature.

Diane Corley uses a digital camera with black and white for the effect she wants using a loving eye to document the lives of her two children, Regan and Kennedy. Regan is portrayed as a budding "Ballerina" as she confidently holds her newly learned ballet pose, and Kennedy is a little quizzical about her bath routine in the photo "Bath Time."

Corley uses interesting photographic angles to capture the charm and innocence of the children.

Light and dark contrasting values are to be found in Martin (Tino) Salazar's compositions. "Trees" has a mystical, ethereal light contrasted by his "United" picture of a warehouse delineated by the brilliant sunlight on the building which creates dark shadows giving the feeling of the solid quality of a structure.

Mimi Salazar has a quick eye to see the beauty all around her such as: the "River Rocks" in a shallow pool of water; a small or colorful bed of "Flowers"; a cluster of "Mushrooms" or toadstool; all create patterns to attract her with her camera and she skillfully uses her instrument to document their beauty.

Roy Vogel's reverence for nature inspired him to take beautiful, straight forward photos and like the well know Ansel Adams, a famous photographer of Yosemite, Vogel waits for the best illumination to accent the beauty of Yosemite, his favorite scene. As a change of pace, on a visit to Macy's department store in San Francisco he shot the glass dome ceiling and created a charming abstract design in black and white with a few touches of hand painted color to enhance the design.

Pitt Turner, nickname Omni, is interested in fashion photography. He does wedding photography and publicity shots for band record covers. In the library exhibit he present three unusual and creative portraits using slide film and special processing printed on color paper and achieves very creative and interesting colors. The unusual camera angles and the dramatic lighting produces a theatrical photo of great impact.

The exhibit can be viewed during regular library hours. The East Yolo Friends of the Library sponsors the art exhibits at the library.

Future effective wage rates which have been predetermined and are on file with the Department of Industrial Relations are referenced but not printed in said publication.

Minimum wage rates for this project as predetermined by the Secretary of Labor are set forth in the Special Provisions. If there is a difference between the minimum wage rates predetermined by the Secretary of Labor and the prevailing wage rates determined by the Department of Industrial Relations for similar classifications of labor, the Contractor and his subcontractors shall pay not less than the higher wage rate. The Community Development Department will not accept lower State wage rates not specifically included in the Federal wage determinations. This includes "helper" (or other classifications based on hours of experience) or any other classification not appearing in the Federal wage determinations. Where Federal wage determinations do not contain the State wage rate determination otherwise available for use by the Contractor and subcontractors, the Contractor and subcontractors shall pay not less than the Federal minimum wage rate which most closely approximates the duties of the employees in question.

Attention is directed to the provisions of Public Contracts Code Section 5101 and following, concerning relief of bidders and in particular to the requirements therein that if the bidder claims a mistake was made in his bid, the bidder shall give the City written notice, within five (5) calendar days after the opening of bids of the alleged mistake, specifying in the notice, in detail, how the mistake occurred.

The City reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and to determine which proposal is, in its judgment, the lowest responsive bid of a responsible bidder and which proposal should be accepted in the best interests of the City.

Letters to the Editor

12 reasons for not having a casino

This letter is written in response to Connie Marsiglia' letter, In support of a casino, which appeared in the News-Ledger last week. In her letter she wrote about how an Indian casino in West Sacramento would be okay because "all the small towns around us have one." In response I came up with twelve reasons why an Indian casino would be unethical and economically harmful for West Sacramento.

1. The Upper Lake Pomo Indians are a 149 member tribe wanting to build potentially the most profitable casino in California. Indian tribes like the Foxwoods and Mohegan Sun bring in billions annually with very small tribes (2000 members combined), but larger tribes like the Navajo receive less than a $1,000 per each member.

2. The Upper Lake Pomo Indians have no ancestral ties to West Sacramento. Their wealthy financial backers (SRQ Inc.) from Florida picked the tribe because of their unique 1981 court ruling that allowed them to choose land for their new reservation outside of their tribal boundaries. SRQ chose West Sacramento because of its profitable location and that the city could easily be manipulated because of its economic status.

3. Indian casinos rarely increase employment within a city, but instead they transfer jobs to the casino from another industry. For example, in West Sacramento you will find fewer jobs in the industrial sector and many more within the Indian casino. On average unemployment rates have increased in cities with Indian casinos.

4. Indian casinos are sovereign nations and are not covered under California labor laws. There are many complaints throughout California where workers from Indian casinos are sexually harassed or injured at the job and are fired. The casinos do not need to worry about labor laws, unions or court rulings.

5. California citizens spend billions at Indian casinos, stopping the economic currency flow because of their tax exempt status and the unequal payout amongst Native Americans. West Sacramento is currently in the process of laying off 15% of its credential teachers because of a state budget crisis.

6. Roy Palmer, the head partner of SRQ, took unfair advantage of the St. Croix Chippewa Indians in Wisconsin by making a deal which brought SRQ the majority of the profits.

7. Indian casinos drain cities of their natural resources and destroy roadways without and compensation.

8. An Indian casino will dramatically slow down our urban development.

9. West Sacramento's major increase in employment will be from the extra police force, sanitary workers, and other city employees that we will need to compensate for the increased activity a casino will bring upon our city.

10. Indian casinos are known for political corruption because they do not face any repercussions if caught. Indian casinos have spent over $10 million annually in paying for Washington lobbyist and political campaign contributions. That is why I was extremely upset at our city council when they decided to make a close door deal with SRQ, which would sell out our city's future for a few magic beans.

11. With persistence and the right investors the 67-acre tract of land owned by Frank Ramos can be used to build outlet stores which will bring high profits, employment, and quality goods that will help West Sacramento prosper.

12. 49% of the 1.52 million American Indians living near reservations are still unemployed and 72% still live below the poverty line. Indian casinos only help the small tribes like the Upper Lake Pomo Indians and their wealthy backers like Roy Palmer.

Teachers needs their COLA

(The following letter was presented at last week's school board meeting)

My name is Rachel Addleman and I have survived teaching in this district for six years now. I came to this district six years ago because I had heard from someone who worked here that it was a great place. Training was wonderful, people know each other, and the teachers were well respected.

I left a wonderful school because of all the good things I heard about Washington Unified School District, and because I wasn't making ends meet in the district I had been in. Now I find myself in the same boat I was in six years ago.

I am no longer able to pay all my bills every month. The cost of living for me has skyrocketed. My rent has gone up seven percent in the last two years alone with the promise of being raised yet again this year. Now with gas going up, and the price of everything else, I am no longer able to afford to buy the basics, and have had to streamline my bills to make things work. I am single. There is no other income in my household to help support these increases, and now WUSD has chosen to give me a zero percent cost of living adjustment. Not a raise, but a COLA increase to offset the rising cost of living, which you have in your account.

On my salary, I am unable to afford a house in any decent area in Sacramento or here in town and I am unable to provide for myself the basic necessities that are required to live in this day and age.

Not only do you insult me by not giving me a COLA, but you make it far worse by the treatment of the teachers in this district. We are not respected. We are given more and more to do, with less time and less help than before. We are unsupported in our efforts to educate.

This year I am at Bridgeway Island. It is a wonderful looking school. But you had no vision for what you wanted to do with it. You have left us on the island to survive on nothing. You gave us the buildings and filled them with desks, chairs, some furniture, textbooks, and the children, but you gave us no place to put a classroom library. No money for needed supplies for the year. No money for books. No dictionaries for the classrooms. No manipulativies for math. You did not even provide the basics for each class from a list I know exists, but due to the fact that hardly anyone in the district office is still here from five years ago, the list, I have been told, doesn't exist. Therefore, no classroom has the same basic supplies! When I go, not if, but when, there will be ten pairs of scissors, a computer, a teacher's desk, a computer desk and student furniture. There will be one table. That is all. Everything else in there is mine. Including the pencil sharpener.

I have not only not gotten a COLA from you, but I have had to take yet more money out of my own pocket to buy what I consider basic supplies and necessary items to teach. We have begged other schools for things and got some in piecemeal. Piecemeal doesn't work when trying to educate children. I have begged my friends and family, and families of my students, for copy paper, pencils, art supplies, rulers, crayons, binders, transparencies and more. I am tutoring students 1-2 days a week with no compensation to help raise their achievement.

Is this how you want your schools run? Is this a way to raise test scores? The only people I see doing that are the people you decided to lay off the other day.

We the teachers have been the glue holding this district together. Without us, the entire district would have crumbled due to your lack of vision. Now you have ripped off a chunk of that glue. One side of the square is now held by nothing. How long do you think this district can stand on its feet without highly qualified, happy, well-paid, and respected teachers? I will tell you -- not long. Without vision for education in this district, the children and families who were promised a wonderful community will continue to suffer.

I have gone from being one of the highest paid teachers, to the bottom of the barrel. I am now the lowest paid teacher on my step and column of any other teacher in the surrounding four counties.

It is time to stop playing games. It is time to stop using teachers as political pawns to move any way you like. It is time to stop making the children suffer a high teacher turnover. It is time to start paying teachers a salary they can live on. It is time to start having a vision, and time to see that the teachers of this district are not the enemy, but the engine and drivers in your vehicle to get from low test scores to higher ones.

The students deserve well-qualified teachers who are willing to stay and who are respected by their employers. The teachers deserve to have a salary we can survive on.

You can replace me with a body, but you can't ever fill my shoes. I am willing to do what it takes to make this district a success. Are you willing to do the same?

Jill Jackson's HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD ... Brad Pitt and Nicole Kidman! Negotiations are afoot to team the two superstars in "Mr. and Mrs. Smith," about a bored married couple who discover they are enemy assassins hired to kill each other. Sounds a bit far out from where I sit, but with those two names it could be about the telephone directory and would bring big bucks to the box office. Stay tuned. ... Many of you are sure to remember "Bewitched," the long-running hit series starring Elizabeth Montgomery wherein she twitched her nose and all kinds of things happened. Now there's talk of a feature film based on the series, to be written by Nora Ephron. And guess what? Nicole is wanted for the Montgomery role, and she would be perfect. ... It couldn't happen to a better actress. Nic is not only that, but she was handed a raw deal by Mr. Cruise and is still hurting, so hopefully some of these good things will ease the pain.

Two more names to conjure with, Pierce Brosnan and Julianne Moore. These two will co-star in a romantic comedy titled "Laws of Attraction," about two divorce lawyers who face off in and out of court. The film will shoot in New York and Ireland.

Aside to Roberta S. of Soledad, Calif. Yup. Frank Langella is still very much around. He recently received an induction into the Theater Hall of Fame, he won a Tony for his performance in "Fortune's Fool" and now he's set to appear in a new TV series titled "111 Grammercy Park." He will play the building's doorman who has been in service there for 46 years. As to his romance with Whoopi Goldberg, that's been over for a long, long time.

More big names parlayed when Matt Damon, Heath Ledger, Robin Williams and Jonathan Pryce headline "The Brothers Grimm." This to be shot in Prague, where much of Hollywood seems to be lensing. Called "fictional action-adventure," it's the tale of folklore collectors Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm with Williams and Pryce playing the villains. Should be an interesting mix of fact and fiction, and with that kind of talent it can hardly miss.

***

BITS 'N' PIECES: So, were you happy with how the Oscars went and whom they went to? If not, there's always next year. ... TV is not my beat, but I must pay my respects to Jane Pauley, who is leaving NBC after 27 years. She has always brought dignity and professionalism to her work and has paved the way for a lot of femmes in the business. Good work, Jane. And now — enjoy your life! ... All seems to be just lovey-dovey in the Moder household. Julia and spouse seen handholding and huggin' and kissin' at a coffeehouse in Santa Monica. ... Author Anne Perry has done it again. This time with "Seven Dials," a can't-put-down, don't-want-to-finish story. It rivets right from the beginning to the explosive ending. Grab it, somebody, and make it into a movie! ... Aside to Philip H. of South Bend, Ind. Yup. Alison Eastwood is Clint's daughter, but I don't know from which wife. ... Fans can see Antonio Banderas in the flesh now that he's to be on Broadway in a musical titled "Nine." And if Antonio is in the Big Apple, can Melanie be far behind? You can bet your bippy she'll be around a lot, keeping tabs on her man. ... I certainly wasn't there, but I read that Britney Spears "threw a Valentine's Day bash — a nipple-piercing party for her entourage, then gave each one a solid gold and silver heart to dangle from the ring." April Festivals

Here are a few choice events in April.

North Carolina Azalea Festival: Wilmington is a beautiful city any time of the year, but give it spring's kiss, and the pink, purple and white azaleas blossom into a spectacle truly worthy of a festival. This year's event — the 56th annual — will be held from April 2-6. You'll find yourself with more than enough to do, with art shows, garden tours, home shows, a street fair and a Shag contest (no Austin Powers jokes, please). Concerts by Al Green and Lonestar will mark the weekend. And Saturday's three-hour parade is a can't-miss; you have to catch a glimpse of the Azalea Queen, her court and the Azalea Princess. (Additional information: www.ncazaleafestival.org or (910) 794-4650.)

Vermont Maple Syrup Festival: This small but delectable festival is a flapjack lover's fantasy, with pancake breakfasts every day. Held April 25-27 in St. Alban's, Vt. Take a dip in the sweet stuff, and then check out arts and crafts. (Additional information: www.vtmaplefestival.org or (802) 524-5800.)

World Championship Cow Chip Throwing Contest: What is a cow chip? It's what you might think — a sort-of dried cow-manure Frisbee. And in Beaver, Okla., they not only toss them around for fun, they mean business. As a matter of fact, this is THE Cow Chip Capital of the World. April 12-19, you'll find more fun there than you can throw some cow poop at, as the Cimmaron Territory Celebration gears up and culminates with the world championships. Events include a hoop-shoot contest, golf bash, trap shoot, a Grand Marshall and Pioneer Queen reception, a ranch rodeo and a Cow Chip Chili Cook-off (don't worry, it isn't what you think). Most events are held at the Beaver County Arena. (Additional information: www.bvrcowchipnews.com and click on "Cow Chip Results" or call (580) 625-4726.)

A Trio of California Food Festivals: What do lemons, grapefruit and avocados have in common? They all have festivals in California this April. Check it out:

• Upland goes sour on April 2 at its Upland Lemon Festival. Events include a children's fair with petting zoo and more, a business and commercial expo, arts and crafts, lots of lemon-flavored tasties and a fireworks display. Call (909) 949-4499 for more info.

• Fallbrook goes green for the Fallbrook Avocado Festival on April 13. Keep your eyes peeled for Little Mister and Miss Avocado (pageant held April 5). More info at (760) 728-5845 or www.fallbrookca.org.

• Grapefruit is king in the charming, off-the-beaten-path town of Borrego Springs. Moore's Mountain hosts the festivities on April 12 and 13. Call (760) 767-5555 for details.

PAGE EIGHT THE YOLO INDEPENDENT FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1921

LOCAL ITEMS

The Sacramento River registered 3 feet 4 inches U. S. guage at the S. P. bridge yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Farbina, with her brother-in-law Louis Simonini, were visitors yesterday for Thanksgiving at the Caffero home on Third street. Mrs. Farbina is a daughter of the family and Simonini is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Caffero. Both returned to their homes in Suisun last night.

Frank Mori, a Japanese of Riverbank, came very close to a sad accident yesterday forenoon at the Third street crossing at the end of the Southern Pacific bridge. Instead of carefully watching the turn at the end of the bridge with its many bumps and chuckholes, he was gazing at the horizon and as a consequence broke a front spring of his automobile. The car continued on the downward grade on Ann street, but when it struck the smooth pavement skidded so badly that it turned right around and continued up the grade it had just left. Luckily there were no cars approaching from the opposite direction or he would surely have done damage. Since the S. P. Co. turned over to the Supervisors the care and maintenance of this crossing it has become rather dangerous and now that no care is given to it it will become a menace in a short time.

WANTED—Salesman for Broderick and vicinity. Commission contract only, for spare time or full time. We will teach you to sell income protection through our free school of instruction and help you build a profitable business. Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance Company, Accident and Health Dept., Saginaw, Michigan. Capital $1,500.000.

Last Friday, Nov. 18th, James Smith was sent to the County Jail in Woodland to serve ninety days for stealing tools from the Sacramento Northern Railroad at the Reed orchard. The tools were found in his possession before being sentenced.

Last Sunday another victim of prohibition was found under the M street bridge suffering from neglect and hunger. He had wandered over from Sacramento to find a place to die because he said he could get no more cocaine because he was no longer able to avoid the police in stealing articles he could sell to buy the drug. He was taken to the County Hospital in Woodland by Constable Buckingham and died the following day. In this connection it is pertinent to note that Chief of Police McShane of Sacramento has promised the Washington authorities he will no longer drive the poor wretches who are victims of drugs across the bridge, but will take them before the Township Justice of Sacramento where they will either be sentenced to the City Jail or sent to some State asylum that will take proper care of them.

Putzman's auto supplies are back to old prices. 1015 J street.

"Moochy" Mathena is seriously grieving over an accident that happened to his Jeffries car last Sunday while on his way to Weimar to visit an old friend who is confined theer suffering from tuberculosis. When he had nearly reached the end of his journey that famous Jeffries car of his refused to go farther against the hill and when he tried to force it there was an explosion, with pieces flying around on all sides. Muchy tried to get those pieces in place again, but they refused to fit, and he gave it up as a bad job. He telephoned down to his friend, Denver Fat, who went after him in his Haynes Speedster. They arrived home at about 3 o'clock the next morning, and made that the excuse for failing to work during the remainder of the week. Their friends are sympathizing with them, but feel that they have had enough rest by now and should return to their jobs.

Hugh Chalmers was a visitor around Washington yesterday with old friends and was treated to a Thanksgiving dinner that opened his eyes at the Lear home. Hugh is an old timer in this locality, having worked for the firm of Mebius & Drescher for 19 years, driving a dray and hauling the biggest loads ever seen in this locality. Of late he has been spending a great deal of his time at Lamoine and yesterday he was taken in tow by W. Parks who showed him some of the jackass life in this section of Yolo County.

Tax Collector R. W. Woods and wife of Woodland spent yesterday with Mrs. McDonald, Bob Woods' mother. They returned to the county seat yesterday.

Yesterday Mrs. P. K. Graves and Mr. and Mrs. B. Robbens went to Davis to spend Thanksgiving with friends in that locality.

During the past week Supervisor Leinberger has had several teams hauling sand and filling to several low places on the streets of Washington. The rain of the past few days showed up these low spots while the ground was not so soft as to prevent heavy teaming. The Supervisor intends keeping the teams at work as long as possible so that all bad places may be filled before the heavy rains make them impassable.

Last Tuesday Lewis S. Flint of Roseville was buried in Sacramento. He was a brother of Elon J. Flint of Washington and left a great number of relatives to mourn him.

A shower in honor of Miss Thelma Braun, who is to become the bride of Elmer Forrest, was given by a number of her fiends last Friday night. The wedding will take place tomorrow.

Putzman repairs all models of bicycles. 1015 J street.

Frank Todhunter, Jr., spent last week-end visiting his parents here. He returned to Colusa where he is stationed on a river boat.

William Russell, who has been enjoying a three weeks' vacation, has returned to his post on the river steamer "Sacramento."

The dance committee of the Parent-Teacher Association met last Tuesday at the home of the chairman, Mrs. O. P. Cook, to make final arrangements for the coming dance on December 2d. Those on the committee beside Mrs. Cook are Mrs. A. Shoemaker, Mrs. Belle Davis and Mrs. A. A. Dassonville.

The sum of $102.55 was realized from the bazaar given by the Ladies' Aid Society and the Sunbeam Class of the Washington Community Church. The money will be used towards paying the church debt.

Mrs. Jack Painter of Oakland was a visitor with relatives in Washington this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Palm left last Sunday for an extended stay in the southern part of the State. They will visit their daughter, Mrs. E. L. Farris, in Los Angeles, and will also go on to San Diego for a visit.

T. E. Sanchez was a visitor last Sunday with relatives in Pleasanton. He returned to Bryte last Tuesday.

Miss Ivy Klefman entertained last Wednesday night at cards with Miss Josephine Vergilio of Sacramento, Lowell Vosberg and Blair Manchester of Washington as her guests.

Mrs. D. R. De Court and children have returned to Oroville after a visit with Mrs. De Court's mother, Mrs. Richard Egan.

An automobile belonging to Harry Van Deren was badly damaged last Wednesday night when it overturned on Fifth street.

HIGHLY ESTEEMED RANCHER OF CLARKSBURG IS BURIED

Warren J. Rose, one of the best known ranchers in the Clarksburg district of Yolo County, died last Monday. He was the husband of Rose V. Rose, loving father of Warren, Antone, Frank, Willie and Angeline Rose of Clarksburg, Manuel and John Rose of Sacramento, Mrs. Lucy Lucile Faugundes of Clarksburg, and the late Marie Merry, a native of Azore Islands.

His funeral was held last Wednesday from his late home, interment being in St. Joseph's Cemetery.

BENNETTS APPOINTED POSTMASTER FOR NEXT FOUR YEARS

A very appropriate Thanksgiving present was handed J. N. Bennetts yesterday when he received his commission as Postmaster at Broderick from President Harding for the four years beginning October 11th.

The commission was signed by Postmaster-General Will H. Hays and countersigned by Warren G. Harding.

This is the first commission of its kind to be received here, although there have been Postmasters for many years, but the exception was made in this instance because it was only lately that the office was raised from fourth class to third class, making it a salary instead of a fee office.

The salary attached to the position is $1,000 per annum.

Bennetts has done a great deal to enhance the Postoffice at Washington. When he took it over from the Hinman store nine years ago there were only 54 lock boxes. To-day there are 431, with a probable increase in that number very soon, and a great increase in mail for parties who do not rent boxes.

He devoted all his time to the Postoffice for several years and did not hesitate to go out of his way to accommodate patrons. He went so far as to go and collect out-going mail so as to increase the revenue of the office.

There is still room for improvement. Many persons living at this side of the river deposit and receive their mail in Sacramento.

Just as good service can be had through the Broderick Postoffice and the trip across the bridge could be saved.

It must be borne in mind too that since Bennetts took hold of the Postoffice there have been established the offices at Bryte and West Sacramento.

Naturally these latter took away from the Broderick office a great deal of patronage, but it continued to increase nevertheless.

Bennetts received his appointment without examination owing, it is believed, to the excellent record made by him during his incumbency.

FOR SALE—One Red-bone Deer Hound, two years old. M. M. Evans, Elk Grove, Calif.

WILD RIDING NEARLY BROUGHT FATAL RESULTS IN SMASH-UP

Last Sunday afternoon about 3 p. m. a serious accident happened to Constable H. B. Buckingham at Mullen's Station on the S. P. line between Davis and Woodland.

Accompanied by Martin McDonough, a friend, E. Holmes, his son-in-law and Holmes' 4-year-old son, Buckingham had been to a ranch in the Sutter Basin for turkeys. His trailer held 12 birds when the accident happened.

Otto Storz, a young farmer of the locality, rode a motorcycle out of a side road at such speed he could not stop when he reached the highway. Buckingham saw him coming and edged off the road to prevent a collision, but Storz could not stop and hit Buckingham's auto, although the car was off the paved portion of the road at the time of the collision.

So great was the impact that the auto was turned over on its side and its occupants spilled on the side of the road.

All were bruised badly and Holmes sustained a gash on his face and finger requiring 18 stitches to close them. McDonough's shoulder was bruised and the little boy's leg badly strained.

Constable Buckingham has been confined to his home since the event suffering with bruises and shock.

The motorcycle climbed on top of the auto and was badly damaged.

The auto is practically a wreck, and cannot be repaired for less than about $250. Two fenders are gone. The radiator is punctured. The fan is without blades and one headlight is gone.

The trailer of turkeys was not upset and remained intact.

Actually the Men's tournament kicks off on Tuesday night with UNC Asheville (14-16) against Texas Southern (18-12). You got to be kidding me UNC Asheville and Texas Southern!

Major League Baseball

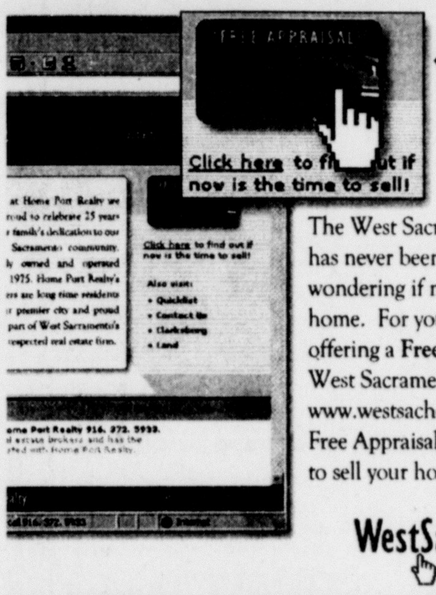

The Oakland A's are one week away from opening the 2003 Major League season on March 25th and 26th in Tokyo, Japan against the Seattle Mariners. The commissioner's office will be keeping a close eye on the status of war and could possibly cancel the games. The A's home opener is set for Tuesday, April 1st (7-p.m.) against the Mariners.

Hey, remember former River Cats third baseman Eric Hinske, the American League's Rookie of the Year last year? Hinske just signed a 5-year guaranteed $14.75 million contract with the Toronto Blue Jays! The ex-gato hit .279 with 24 HR's and 84 RBI's last season. On the other side of the coin, Jose Canseco was re-sentenced to two years of house arrest for his part in a night club fight. Jose violated his terms of his probation and failed to attend his anger management classes. I think we can safely say Jose's career is over. Sad news for Jose Canseco, who hit 462 home runs in his career and retired after playing in 1,887 major league ball game!

The Texas Rangers and Seattle Mariners will be playing an exhibition game on Saturday, March 29th (1:30 p.m.) at Raley Field. The River Cats management as indicated that starting major league players would play at least 4 innings. Also, the Sacramento River Cats will be playing the Oakland A's after they return from Japan on Sunday, March 30th at Raley Field. Remaining tickets for both games are available at the Raley Field box office and at Ticket.com or by calling (916) 766-2277.
